11: GENERAL RULES CONCERNING THE COMPETITION

- Only Official forms will be accepted, forms will be attached to the next email.
- Along with this newsletter we send you the kumite rules for Children and Juniors, the official kata rules for the Championship.
- All Organizations are accepted.
- It is obligatory to write the name of the trainer on the inscription to be accepted. The maximum number will be 3 trainers because in our competition there will be 3 tatami.
- Each Kyokushin Blood group from each country can register an unlimited number of competitors per category and weight.
- The organizers have the right to cancel the event or change the category and weight if there are not enough participants.
- Men and women are not allowed to compete with each other.
- The KUMITE competition among adult contestants will be held in the weight divisions.
- With the approval of the Kyokushin Kan Sports Branch Referee Committee and the tournament organizers, the organizers have the right to change the weight categories, taking into account the number of competitors and the competition conditions. However, this statement must be clearly stated in the competition application form.
- When at the weigh-in procedure it is discovered that the weight of a competitor exceeds the upper limit of the weight category they applied for, the competitor will be given the opportunity to lose the excess if unable to do so they will be disqualified, or if possible (with the tournament Committee's approval) given the option to compete in the category above. If the weight of a competitor is less than the lower limit for this weight category, they can participate in the competition, but the weight of the competitor shall be considered as equal to the lower limit of his weight category, if it is not possible to change category.
- In an individual bout, one of the competitors is called "AKA" ("Red") and is differentiated by the red ribbon fastened to his belt on the back, and the other is called "SHIRO" ("White") and is differentiated by the white ribbon fastened to his belt on the back. The SHIRO competitor is called to the competition area first, and the AKA competitor second.
- The use of competitors' names causes problems of pronunciation and identification. Tournament numbers should be allotted and used on identifications (ZEKKEN) in addition to the names whenever possible.
- The competitors that do not present themselves when called within 1 minute will be disqualified (KIKEN).

- No competitor may be replaced by another.
- All competitors must always obey the Referee's orders.
- Coaches must present their accreditation together with that of their competitor to the designated area. The coach must sit in the chair provided and must not interfere with the smooth running of the match by word or deed. Only one coach is allowed to accompany a competitor to the competition area as his second.
- If, through an error in charting, the wrong competitors compete, then regardless of the outcome, that bout is declared null and void.
- Contest area should be covered with semi-hard matting.
- Kyokushin Kan have the authority for the matters not described here.
